

March is Reading Month

Teen Reading BINGO

March 1, 2023 to March 31, 2023

Warren residents complete a bingo vertically, horizontally, or diagonally to earn a prize.

Logs will be available to be picked up at any Warren Public Library starting March 1, 2023 and must be turned in by March 31, 2023.

Read a book all in one day. (You can pick the length!)	Read for thirty minutes.	Read a book your friend recommended.	Stay in your pajamas and read.	A book about someone who is different than you.
A book you know nothing about (based on the cover or title).	Read a book by a diverse author.	Read a poem (or book of poems!)	Read a graphic novel or comic book.	Ask someone what their favorite book is and what they like about it.
Talk to someone about books you like. If possible, suggest books for each other.	A book published in 2022 or 2023.		Find a book about a topic you are interested in and look for three interesting facts.	Sign up for a Teen Book Box.
A book recommended on #Booktok or other social media.	Read for at least 20 minutes twice (or more!) in one day..	A mystery, thriller, dark academia, or horror book.	A book with pictures. (Graphic novels, Photos, illustrations, etc.)	A short story, essay, or article. (online counts for this one!)
Read for at least 20 minutes three days in a row.	A book set in another country. (Real or imagined)	Scan to fill out a teen media review. 	A book that has an animal or pet in it.	A book you started, but haven't finished. Or, a book you always wanted to read.
